

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Giving for Good Gala for Chester County Community Foundation Set for June 5 2010

West Chester, PA –May 7, 2010: The Chester County Community Foundation has completed plans for the “Giving for Good Gala.” It will be held on June 5 at the Malvern home of Rosemary and John Diederich in Malvern. Catering is by Jimmy Duffy and Sons, and music by The Jon Lewis Orchestra.

The Gala, co-chaired by Mr. and Mrs. John A. Featherman, III, of West Chester, PA, honors the retiring Foundation Board Chair, West Chester attorney Lou Teti , and welcomes investment advisor Michael Karwic who will take on the position.

A live auction is expected to generate active bidding among the 200-plus guests. Items range from hunting weekends at exclusive clubs to a luxurious excursion in the wine country of Sonoma California

The Chester County Community Foundation was established in 1994 to inspire and encourage people from all walks of life to create lasting philanthropic charitable legacies. The Community Foundation holds in trust 300 funds whose value exceeds $25 million. Over the past year the Foundation distributed $1.6 million in grants to nonprofit charities.

Proceeds from the “Giving for Good” gala will benefit Community Foundation and its Fund for Chester County. Community members are urged to attend the gala. Invitations are available from the Chester County Community Foundation at 610-696-8211 or log onto www.chescocf.org .
