

Please Honor Representative Elinor Z. Taylor's Legacy

Described by friends and colleagues as ‘passionate,’ ‘feisty’ and a ‘great advocate’, the Honorable Elinor Zimmerman Taylor will be celebrated by all those she touched with her fervor for life, dedication to civic engagement and commitment to community philanthropy.

Elinor Z. Taylor was born in 1921 in Norristown, PA. A graduate of West Chester High School, she earned her Bachelors degree in 1943 from West Chester State College and then her Masters in Education in 1958 from Temple University.

In her role as Dean of Students at West Chester State College, Taylor took a leading role advocating for women’s athletics— a radical idea in the 1960’s and 70’s. Making a place for herself in politics was a natural progression for Taylor. By 1977, she was one of few female members in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives.

The Honorable Elinor Z. Taylor Charitable Foundation was created by Taylor in 2005 to make annual grants to Chester County causes she cared about and advocated for throughout her lifetime. Gifts to this fund will allow perpetual grants to be made to help senior citizens, children’s services, assist with fire rescue, veterans services and education.
