

'81 Douglas Arpert has been appointed a U.S. Magistrate Judge in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey.

Carrie Samuels Bagli writes: "I live with my husband, two teenage girls and Kerry Blue Terrier in Boulder, Colo., where I work at the University of Colorado's Leeds School of Business as a career counselor. Life is good! Find me on Facebook."

Stan Bruckheim launched Latino Media Services, an advertising agency, in August 2007. It has become the largest buyer of direct-response cable ad time in Latin America in 18 months. Stan and his wife, Danielle celebrated their 10-year anniversary. They live in Laguna Niguel, Calif., with their two boys, Dylan (9) and Brandon (5).

David Carter reports: "Keith Orris '81 had a surprise birthday celebration in mid-January. The unexpected trip to Vermont followed a yearly ritual where Keith, along with myself, Mark Monborne '79 and Wes Pontius '83, their wives and families get together at a farm on the eastern shore of Maryland. This year, instead of heading home, Keith's wife, Suzanne, handed him winter-weather gear, pointed to a waiting car and explained that his gift was spending quality time with his F&M friends."

Beth Robbins Drazin and Brian Drazin '79 are proud to announce the upcoming F&M graduation of their daughter, Samantha '09, a government major. They also have a daughter graduating from high school and another daughter graduating from grammar school. Their son is a sophomore at University of Miami studying ecosystem science and policy.

Best friends Valerie Mittl and Joan Vondra have been vacationing together with their families for years. Past trips include a dude ranch in Wyoming, an Alaskan cruise and touring London. This summer the plan is to raft the Grand Canyon, and in the fall they will celebrate their 50th birthdays together at the Greenbriar Resort.

Daniel Siegel, Esq., published "Sticky Buns for Justice Blackmun" in the Fall issue of The Philadelphia Lawyer. The article recounts the time he and his classmates from Grier Stephenson's Constitutional Law class delivered sticky buns to Justice Blackmun before hearing a case at the Supreme Court.

'82 Marianne Bolli-van der Heijden has been living in Switzerland, in the Zurich area and Ticino, with her husband of 19 years, Martino, and their menagerie of animals. They run a business buying and selling wholesale and retail precious metals. She would look forward to hearing from some old friends.

David Mason moved to Rehoboth Beach, Del., four years ago and loves living at the beach. He owns a remodeling and painting business, specializing in finer, custom projects. He would love to reconnect with old friends.

William Hutchison has been married for 25 years. He has three children. He is back in graduate school for architecture after being a pastor for 20 years and hopes to become an architectural and pastoral consultant for houses of worship doing renovations and/or additions and going green.

'83 Jonathan Flatow was promoted to chief operating officer of Greenfield Online. In October Greenfield was acquired by Microsoft.

Laura Lee Hervey raised money during Brain Injury Awareness Month. For more information, go to www.chescocf.org and click on her name under the funds heading. One hundred percent of all funds go back into the community.

Kurt Kaulback, M.D., was elected vice president of the medical staff at Underwood-Memorial Hospital in Woodbury, N.J. He continues on staff at Hahnemann University Hospital as a clinical assistant professor of medicine, interventional cardiology.

He practices in Woodbury and lives in Haddonfield with his wife and two children.

Joan Miller enjoyed a two-and-one-half-month stay in Hanoi, Vietnam, this spring while her husband, Jim Smyle, worked as a project consultant for an agricultural development organization.

The Rev. Catherine Tatem Rickett was ordained to the priesthood in the Episcopal Church on Dec. 14. She and her husband, David, live in Columbia, Mo.

25TH REUNION

'84 Ken Auerbach was elected president of the National Association of Professional Insurance Agents, representing more than 10,000 agencies and 100,000 insurance professionals.

Lisa Marie Coyne, Esq., was appointed to the Orphans' Court Procedural Rules Committee of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court in January.

Diane Sumoski has been elected to a two-year term on the board of directors of the Dallas Bar Association, one of the country's leading metropolitan bar associations with more than 10,500 lawyers. She practices business litigation at Carrington Coleman in Dallas. She and her husband, Lance Rasbridge, are looking forward to seeing their classmates at their 25th Reunion.

'85 Michele McNenny Siegmann is living in south central New Hampshire on 40 acres in a small town called Mason. She and her husband have been married for 17 years. They have three children, Mariah (16), Morgan John (15) and Alison (13). Michele has been self-employed as a Davis Dyslexia Correction Program Facilitator since 2002. The more she works with visual-spatial learners with this program, the more she loves it.

Loreli Stochaj completed another master's degree in May (this one from Seton Hall University) and recently took the job as a media specialist in Franklin School where she had been teaching.

SAVE THE DATE — HOMECOMING 2009: Oct. 23–25